Releasing Parties) fully releases, acquits and discharges STABLE, all other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES and any and all other persons, firms, entities or corporations who are or can ever in any way be liable to the undersigned (The Parties Herein Released), of and from all claims, demands, damages, actions and causes of action of every kind and nature (including but not limited to rights of indemnity and contribution) known or unknown, existing, claimed to exist, or which can ever hereafter arise out of or result from or in connection with: the use of the PREMISES; hidden, latent or obvious defects in the PREMISES; hidden, latent or obvious defects in any equipment that may be provided for CLIENT use; the services to be provided by TRAINERS pursuant to this Contract; EQUINE ACTIVITIES; use of the play equipment, or any of the other the risks, terms and conditions described in this Contract (including those itemized in ^3 of this Contract), including but not limited to any and all liability for any injuries and damages to persons, HORSES and/or property that may arise, from the strict liability, passive negligence or active negligence of BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES and the other Parties Herein Released. E. 3. RISKS ASSUMED:

The risks assumed by execution of this Contract include, but are not limited to, the risks associated with: (1) EQUINE ACTIVITIES; (2) the failure of any equipment and tack STABLE, TRAINERS or any other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES may provide for the purpose of HORSEBACK RIDING (including failures resulting from hidden, latent and patent/obvious defects in the equipment and tack); (3) the acts or omissions of HORSES, animals and/or persons, regardless of whether they are in the control of or under the instruction of STABLE, TRAINERS or any other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES; (4) acts of nature; (5) and the conditions of the PREMISES and improvements thereon. The risks acknowledged and assumed by execution of this Contract specifically include, but are not limited to:

- A. HORSES ARE INHERENTLY DANGEROUS: HORSEBACK RIDING is a vigorous, rugged, adventurous, recreational sporting activity that at all times, and despite all safety precautions, involves many obvious and non-obvious inherent risks. No HORSE is completely safe; no amount of TRAINING can make a HORSE completely safe; and no amount of care, caution, instruction or expertise can ensure that a CLIENT or HORSE will not be injured while engaging in EQUINE ACTIVITIES. A HORSE is a very large, fast and athletic animal that must at all times be presumed to be unpredictable and potentially dangerous, and a PARTICIPANT must at all times be presumed to be at risk of harm from a HORSE. Even an unprovoked HORSE can stumble, trip or fall, injuring itself, its rider/handler, bystanders, or another PARTICIPANT, and/or another HORSE. HORSES can and do cause damage to property, injury to animals and people, and injury to themselves. This occurs when HORSES are handled with reasonable care by both inexperienced and expert horsemen.
- B. A FRIGHTENED HORSE: If a HORSE is startled, frightened, injured or provoked, it may divert from its TRAINING and act according to its natural survival instincts that include, but are not limited to: stopping short; tripping, falling, stumbling, changing direction and/or speed at will; shifting/throwing its weight from side to side; bucking; rearing; biting; kicking or running from the perceived danger, or pulling back from the person holding the lead line or the object to which the HORSE is tied. The stimuli that will startle, frighten or provoke a given HORSE may vary from day to day or even from moment to moment. No person can reliably predict the stimuli that will startle, frighten or provoke a HORSE.
- C. INCREASED RISKS OF TRAINING AND COMPETITION: The process of TRAINING to improve the performance and skill of the STUDENT or HORSE inherently involves challenging the HORSE and STUDENT to perform tasks they have never before accomplished, and challenging the HORSE and STUDENT to perform familiar tasks with increased precision and/or speed, thus increasing the risks associated with EQUINE ACTIVITIES. Competing on a HORSE inherently involves challenging the HORSE and STUDENT to perform at and test the extreme limits of their skills, thus increasing the risks associated with EQUINE ACTIVITIES.
- D. INJURIES CAUSED BY A HORSE: If a rider falls or is thrown from a HORSE to the ground it will generally be at a distance of at least 31/2 to 5 feet in the event of a fall, a greater distance if the rider is thrown, and can be at a high rate of speed. In the event a rider falls from or is dragged by a HORSE, or a horse falls/lands in whole or in part on a person, steps on, kicks, bites or runs into a person, the person may sustain SERIOUS, PERMANENT PHYSICAL OR MENTAL INJURIES, INCLUDING PERMANENT DISABILITY, PARALYSIS, BRAIN DAMAGE or even DEATH. Those injuries may result in the need for extended medical care or treatment, long term personal care, and/or hospitalization.

- E. THE LIMITED BENEFITS OF TRAINING: The degree to which a HORSE can be expected to act predictably, and with good manners, can in most instances be enhanced by regular TRAINING; and the degree to which a PARTICIPANT can minimize their own risk of injury can be enhanced with regular TRAINING.
- 1) TRAINING OF A HORSE: Although a HORSE must at all times be presumed to be unpredictable and potentially dangerous, the level and frequency of TRAINING which TRAINER provides to CLIENT'S HORSE will affect the degree to which TRAINER can maintain control over the day to day condition of the HORSE, the level of exercise it has received at any given time, its basic TRAINING, the provision of any needed fine tuning to maintain the achieved level of TRAINING and obedience, and can work with the HORSE to develop and maintain it's manners, both on the ground and under saddle. In addition, the degree to which TRAINER has control over and interaction with a CLIENT'S HORSE will affect the extent to which TRAINER can assess its mental and physical condition at any single point in time. A HORSE will not maintain its level of TRAINING without constant reinforcement of that TRAINING. If at any time the level or frequency of TRAINING and handling an OWNER'S HORSE is receiving from TRAINER is reduced, the odds increase that the HORSE will revert to any prior poor manners, develop new bad manners, and the HORSE'S natural survival instincts will overtake its TRAINING in response to stimuli.
 - 2) TRAINING OF A RIDER: The rider is ultimately responsible for his or her own safety when mounted on a HORSE. Upon mounting a HORSE and taking up the reins, the rider is in primary control of the HORSE. The rider's safety largely depends upon his/her ability and willingness to carry out simple instruction, to do so in a timely manner (which may be immediately), and his/her ability to remain balanced and calm aboard the moving animal. The frequency with which a STUDENT obtains HORSEBACK RIDING instruction from TRAINER will affect the degree to which a STUDENT can minimize their own risk of injury, through improved equitation skills and information provided by TRAINER concerning their own HORSE and HORSES in general. A person may not maintain their achieved level of EQUINE ACTIVITY skill without constant reinforcement through instruction. If at any time the frequency of instruction from TRAINER is reduced, the odds increase that a STUDENT will begin to revert to prior poor habits, will develop new poor habits, or the STUDENT will be unprepared to properly handle new behavior exhibited by a HORSE, whether in the saddle or on the ground.
- F. CONDITIONS OF NATURE and PROPERTY: STABLE, TRAINERS and the other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES do not own or have exclusive rights to the trails and premises adjacent to Willow Tree Stables and are unable to control the condition of those premises or the activities that take place thereon. STABLE, TRAINERS and the other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES cannot control and are not responsible for total or partial acts, occurrence or elements of nature or for animals that can startle or frighten a HORSE. Some examples include: thunder, lightning, wind, rain, falling trees, wild and domestic animals (deer, turkeys and other animals frequently enter the PREMISES).
4. ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS: In further consideration for the services and benefits to be provided under this Contract:

- A. PROTECTIVE HEADGEAR. FOOTWEAR and BODY WEAR: Protective helmets are available and recommended by the STABLE and TRAINERS for all persons participating in an EQUINE ACTIVITY. At all times while riding or handling a HORSE minors must wear helmets that meet the current ASTM and SEI standards. Helmets that meet the current ASTM and SEI standards must also be worn by all adults while jumping a HORSE. Protective footwear specifically designed for EQUINE ACTIVITIES, with appropriate heels, hard soles and reinforced toes are available and recommended as is protective body wear, such as cross-country vests designed to protect the torso in the event of a fall. STUDENTS and other CLIENTS are exclusively responsible for providing their own protective headgear, footwear and body wear. STABLE and TRAINERS reserve the right to refuse TRAINING to any person who is not wearing protective headgear, footwear and/or body wear, but STABLE and TRAINERS bear no responsibility, in whole or in part, for any injuries or damages that arise out of or have been contribute to by CLIENT'S failure to wear such gear while engaged in EQUINE ACTIVITIES under this Contract. Although they assume no duty to do so, STABLE and TRAINERS may provide protective helmets to STUDENTS and other CLIENTS who have failed to provide their own, however it is understood that the equipment may not be a perfect fit for the CLIENT; the signatories to this Contract and the CLIENTS assume the risk and responsibility of deciding whether to use the helmet and securing/fitting the equipment.
- B. INCORPORATION OF STABLE RULES: CLIENT hereby agrees and represents that in consideration of being permitted upon the PREMISES, for any purpose, he/she has received, reviewed, understood and consented to the STABLE Rules which are incorporated herein by reference (initial here)_____. The current STABLE Rules are posted on the window of Willow Tree Stables' office and are available upon request. CLIENT is responsible for checking the window to ascertain the current rules and acknowledges and stipulates that for purposes of any claim or cause of action arising out of the matters that are the subject of this Contract, he/she will be deemed to have read and to have agreed to comply with the STABLE Rules that are/were posted at the time(s) the claim or cause of action arose.
- C. PRIVATE PROPERTY: CLIENTS are responsible for insuring their own HORSES, equipment and other personal items, including their tack, trailer and vehicles. The possessions of others are not covered by STABLE'S insurance for loss, loss of use or damage and may not be covered by the insurance of any other BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES.
- D. RIGHT TO REFUSE USE OF THE PREMISES: The STABLE reserves the right to refuse to provide use of the PREMISES to any CLIENT at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice (including during the course of an EQUINE ACTIVITY). Reasons the STABLE may refuse to provide use of the PREMISES include, but are not limited to: violation of the Stable Rules and/or policies of the STABLE; the physical or mental condition or acts of any HORSE, person or animal; acts and conditions of nature; CLIENT'S inability or refusal to follow the instructions of the STABLE or it's employees regarding acts or omissions that affect the management, care, welfare or safety of a HORSE; CLIENT'S inability or refusal to follow the reasonable recommendations of the STABLE or it's employees regarding acts or omissions that affect the health or safety of third parties or the enjoyment of EQUINE ACTIVITIES or other use of the PREMISES by third parties.
- E. IMAGE AND AUDIO USE: Each signatory hereto on behalf of him/herself, his/her heirs (including all minor children), administrators, estate, assigns and representatives, and to the extent that a

Those images may include but are not limited to photographs, videotapes, digital recordings, audio recordings, web casts and cablecasts. Any rights in connection with such use, including any claim for compensation, invasion of privacy, right of publicity or misappropriation is hereby waived and released.

- F. THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES: To the extent that any BUSINESS PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES is not a first party to this Contract, it is an intended third party beneficiary of this Contract to the extent that any provision herein may be used as a defense by that BUSINESS PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES to a claim against it by one or more of The Releasing Parties. All individuals and entities with an easement right to cross the Premises are intended third party beneficiaries of this Contract to the extent that any provision herein may be used as a defense by that person or entity to a claim against it by one or more of The Releasing Parties with regard to the condition of the Premises. No BUSINESSES PROVIDING SERVICES AT WILLOW TREE STABLES, entities or individuals with easement rights to cross the Premises are intended third party beneficiaries of this Contract with regard to any claims that may exist, or arise between one or more of them on the one hand, and Willow Tree Stables, Inc., Monte Kruger, Curt Kruger, Emily Kruger or Eric Kruger on the other.
